PARTICIPANT SPOTLIGHT: Pathways Program leads Lacey to success

“The happiest moments of my life? One would be when my daughter was born. The other would be when I graduated from Goodwill, because I’d never graduated from anything.” Lacey Romero is a proud, 22 year-old single mom and recent graduate of Goodwill’s Career Pathways Program.

Lacey had a friend who completed “Pathways” and suggested Lacey check it out. The Career Pathway’s Program helps job seekers gain core skills, a career plan and the motivation necessary to reach higher-paying jobs and a better life. Pathways also offers mini-programs such as professional development, job search, resume writing, interview skills and even financial coaching. After using Pathways to compare Lacey’s interests and skills with different careers, the Goodwill Custodial Skills job training program seemed the perfect next step.

Pathways also connected Lacey with companies who would be interested in her upon graduation. “I never had so many people interview me until I went to Goodwill! Companies call Dan Brown, my instructor in the Custodial Skills program because the people who graduate are so motivated and skilled.”

“I knew I could get a housecleaning job, but Dan would say, ‘Look at all the things you can do.’ I was flabbergasted! I don’t have to make minimum wage the rest of my life.” Goodwill helped Lacey and can help you reach your potential!
